Executive Director
Guam Election Commission
April 2011 - Present

Buenas yan Håfa Adai! Pursuant to 3 G.C.A. § 2103(c), the Guam Election Commission (GEC) is pleased to present the Twenty-Sixth (26th) Edition of the Election Comparative Analysis Report for 2024. This edition provides the statistical data for the 2024 Primary and General Elections as well as historical data from preceding elections.

The Primary Election was held on Saturday, August 3, 2024 to determine which partisan candidates would advance to the General Election. For the first time, the Primary Election was scheduled on the first Saturday in August, after Public Law 37-85 was signed into law on April 4, 2024.

The General Election was conducted on Tuesday, November 5, 2024 to determine which candidates would be elected to serve in the official capacity of Mayors and Vice Mayors, Guam's Non-Voting Delegate to the 118th House of Representatives, Members to I Mina'trentai Ocho Na Liheslaturan Guåhan (38th Guam Legislature), Attorney General of Guam, Public Auditor of Guam, Members of the Consolidated Commission on Utilities (CCU), and Members of the Guam Education Board (GEB). Also on the ballot were three judicial retention questions and the straw poll for the U.S. Presidential race.

The Guam Election Commission began its search for additional, newer tabulation machines in 2023. Two tabulators (Elections Systems and Software 950s) that count 280 ballots per minute were purchased, just in time for the required recounts for both the Primary and General Election: for the position of Dededo Vice Mayor for the Primary Election and for the fifteenth position of the 38th Guam Legislature for the General Election.

Immediately after the 2024 Primary Election, the GEC took the position that the 4% minimum vote threshold required by 3 G.C.A. § 15109 referred to the total ballots cast in the primary election, which was inconsistent with how the GEC had applied this statute in previous years (see GEC Meeting Minutes August 24, 2000). After thoroughly reviewing past elections, GEC reverted to its prior practice of utilizing the total ballots cast for the district to calculate the 4% threshold.

The Guam Election Commission, through a competitive grant from the U.S. Election Assistance Commission, was awarded $66,745 for a College Poll Worker Recruitment Program. PA308 Elections Administrations, a 3-credit academic course is now offered every even year as part of the Public Administration undergraduate degree program at the University of Guam. Forty-eight precinct officials, including twelve teachers, were recruited for the 2024 General Election and precinct official training videos will be updated using grant proceeds.

The Guam Election Commission continues to work long after the election to improve its processes and resources in order to uphold the integrity of the electoral process. Special recognition yan si Yu'os ma'åse' para i Commissioners, Legal Counsel, yan staff for their hard work and dedication in the months leading up to and throughout the 2024 elections. The GEC is certain that this publication will provide you with valuable information concerning Guam's 2024 elections.

Sinseramente,

MARIA I.D. PANGELINAN
Executive Director

1.11 GOVERNORS AND LIEUTENANT GOVERNORS 1600 – Present

There were four distinct eras in the appointment or election of Guam's Governors. The first of these is the Spanish era, during which Spanish Governors were appointed from the 1600's through the early 1800's. The second era is the Naval Administration era during which Guam's Governors were military officers appointed by the President of the United States, from 1899 to 1949 aside from the Japanese occupation during 1941-1944. The enactment of the Organic Act of Guam in 1950 began the third era. The Organic Act provided Guam with a civil government in which civilian Governors were appointed by the President of the United States, from 1949 through 1970. The Elective Governor Act in 1968 marked the fourth era. In 1970, the people of Guam elected its first Governor and Lieutenant Governor. To date, Guam continues to elect its Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

1.12 GUAM LEGISLATURE: 1950 TO PRESENT

The Organic Act of Guam created a legislative body not to exceed twenty-one (21) members, to be known as senators, elected at large, or elected from legislative districts, or elected in part at large and in part from legislative districts by the people of Guam.

Members from the First through Fourteenth Legislature were elected at large. The Fifteenth Legislature and Sixteenth Legislature were elected by legislative districts apportioned as follows: First Legislative District – Includes the municipal districts of Dededo and Yigo, and entitled to seven (7) seats in the Guam Legislature; Second Legislative District – Includes the municipal districts of Tamuning, Agana Heights, Mongmong-Toto-Maite, and Barrigada, and entitled to six (6) seats in the Guam Legislature; Third Legislative District – Includes the municipal districts of Piti, Asan-Maina, Sinajana, Mangilao, Chalan Pago-Ordod and Yona, and entitled to four (4) seats in the Guam Legislature; and, Fourth Legislative District – Includes the municipal districts of Santa Rita-Sumai, Hagat, Humatak, Malesso', Inalåhan, and Talo'fo'fo', and entitled to four (4) seats in the Guam Legislature.

In 1982, shortly before the deadline for filing nominating petitions, the United States District Court of Guam ruled that the nomination and election of the Legislature shall be held on an island-wide basis. A successful court suit was filed by a senatorial candidate who claimed that the number of seats per legislative district should be reapportioned to meet the 1980 Federal Census figure. Thus, the Court ruled that the Legislature would be elected on an island-wide basis in the 1982 election. To date, the legislative body is elected island-wide.

On March 31, 1995, Public Law 23-01 was enacted to provide for an initiative measure to reduce the membership of the Guam Legislature from twenty-one (21) to fifteen (15) members. This initiative was passed in the 1996 General Election, and subsequently enacted into law. The new statute, 3 G.C.A. § 6101 reads, "Section 6101. Guam Legislature Description. I Liheslaturan Guåhan shall be a unicameral body consisting of 15 members who are elected at large and as provided by law [commencing with the election of the Twenty-Fifth Guam Legislature.]"

1.15 JUDICIARY

1.15.1 SUPERIOR COURT OF GUAM, 1978-PRESENT

In 1910, Governor Edward Dorn replaced the Spanish Court with the Island Court system to handle most criminal and civil cases. By 1933 the Island Court system had branched out into the Island Court, the Police Court, and the Justice Court. In 1941, Guam was invaded by the Japanese forces and occupied until July 21, 1944.

After the liberation of Guam, American forces placed the island under martial law with the exception of Military courts. In 1946, with the Naval Government reestablished, Judge Vicente P. Camacho and Judge Jose C. Manibusan were the only Guamanian Judges. In 1950 after the passage of the Organic Act, the island of Guam was afforded the right to establish the judicial branch. Guam law makers would pass Public Law 17 the Judiciary Act which would restructure the court system to have the District Court, the Island Court, the Police Court, and the Commissioners Court.

In 1974, Public Law 12-85 the Court Reorganization Act would rename the Island Court system to the present-day Superior Court of Guam. Under the Superior Court of Guam, judges are appointed by the Governor for a seven (7) year term and retained by public voting.

Title 7, G.C.A. § 6101. Tenure, Rejection or Retention in Office of a Justice or a Judge

(b) Each Judge of the Superior Court shall hold office for a term ending the 31st day of January following the first general election held after the expiration of seven (7) years since his or her appointment or election to office.

(1) No less than sixty (60) days prior to the holding of the general election next preceding the expiration of his or her term of office, any Judge may file in the office of the Election Commission a declaration of candidacy for election to succeed himself or herself. If a declaration is not filed, the vacancy resulting from the expiration of his or her term of office shall be filled by appointment pursuant to § 3108 of this Title.

(2) If such a declaration is filed, the name of such Judge shall be submitted at said next general election on a non-partisan ballot along with any other Judges seeking retention at the same election, without party designation, reading:

‘Shall [Justice] [Judge] _____ (here insert the name of the Justice or Judge) or the [Supreme Court] [Superior Court] be retained in office? Yes No (Mark your preference).’

(3) If a majority of those voting on the question vote against retaining him or her in office, upon the expiration of his or her term of office, a vacancy shall exist which shall be filled by an initial appointment as provided in this Title; otherwise, said Judge shall, unless removed for cause, be retained in office for a term commencing upon the expiration of his or her existing term of office.

For the November 7, 1978 General Election, the Guam Election Commission prepared and presented the first Judicial Ballot to the electorate. To date, all Superior Court Judges retained include:

1.15.2 SUPREME COURT OF GUAM, 1995 TO PRESENT

In 1992, the Twenty-First Guam Legislature enacted Public Law 21-147 establishing the Supreme Court of Guam. P.L. 21-147 was sponsored by Senator Pilar C. Lujan and named the "Frank G. Lujan Memorial Court Reorganization Act." The Supreme Court of Guam began operations with the passage of the Supreme Court of Guam Rules of Appellate Procedure Act, Public Law 23-34.

Governor Carl T.C. Gutierrez appointed Guam's first Supreme Court Justices to the Supreme Court of Guam on November 22, 1995. There were six members appointed, three full-time Justices and three part-time Justices. The Twenty-Third Guam Legislature confirmed all six Justices on April 19, 1996 and they were sworn in on April 21, 1996.

Title 7, G.C.A. § 6101. Tenure, Rejection or Retention in Office of a Justice or a Judge

A Consolidated Commission on Utilities is established to exercise powers vested in it by the laws establishing the Guam Power Authority (GPA) and the Guam Waterworks Authority (GWA). The Commission is comprised of five (5) Commissioners elected at-large by the voters of Guam in a General Election. To be eligible to be a Commissioner, a person must be a registered voter of Guam and a minimum of twenty-five (25) years of age, and shall have been a resident of Guam for at least five (5) years prior to the date of the Commissioner's election. Persons retired from the government of Guam may serve as Commissioners. At their first official meeting, the Commissioners shall elect from among the Commissioners a chairperson, who shall preside over meetings of the Commission. A majority of the Commissioners holding office shall constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of the Commissioners holding office shall constitute the decision of the Commission. The Commission may adopt rules and regulations governing the conduct of its affairs.

The Office of Commissioner is a nonpartisan office. Candidates for the Office shall not identify themselves as members of any political party on Guam for the purpose of their campaign, nor shall they receive any endorsement or material support from any political party on Guam during the course of their campaigns. No Primary Election is required for candidates for this office. No nominating petitions shall be required of any candidate for this Office. Any qualified person applying to the Guam Election Commission, or its successor, for candidacy to this office shall be placed on the General Election ballot. The first election for members of the Commission occurred during the General Election of 2002. The three (3) candidates receiving the highest numbers of votes were elected to serve a four (4) year term, and the two (2) candidates receiving the next highest numbers of votes were elected to serve a two (2) year term.

On November 5, 2002, the First Consolidated Commission on Utilities was elected. Mr. Simon A. Sanchez II, Dr. Judith P. Guthertz, and Mr. Benigno M. Palomo received the highest number of votes, and were therefore elected to 4-year terms. Messrs. Frank S.N. Shimizu and Vincent Cristobal Camacho received the next highest numbers of votes, and were therefore elected to 2-year terms.

1.21 GUAM DECOLONIZATION REGISTRY

1.21.1 Title 3, G.C.A. § 21000. Legislative Findings and Intent.

In furtherance of Public Law Number 23-147, now codified as Chapter 21 of Title 1 of the Guam Code Annotated, wherein the Commission on Decolonization was established and given the mandate to conduct a plebiscite on the political status wishes of the people of Guam, I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds there is a need for a Registry, separate and apart from the Chamorro Registry authorized by Public Law Number 23-130, now codified as Chapter 20 of Title 3 of the Guam Code Annotated, which will specifically delineate the list of qualified voters for the political status plebiscite, and intends that this separate Registry not be one based on race.

It is the intent of I Liheslaturan Guåhan to permit the native inhabitants of Guam, as defined by the U.S. Congress 1950 Organic Act of Guam to exercise the inalienable right to self-determination of their political relationship with the United States of America.

I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds that the right has never been afforded the native inhabitants of Guam, its native inhabitants and land having themselves been overtaken by Spain, and then ceded by Spain to the United States of America during a time of war, without any consultation with the native inhabitants of Guam.

This inalienable right is founded upon the 1898 Treaty of Peace between the United States and Spain; Chapter XI of the United Nations Charter; the United States yearly reports to the United Nations on the Non Self-governing Territory of Guam; 1950 Organic Act of Guam; United Nations Resolution Number 1541 (XV); United Nations Resolution 1514 (XV); § 307 (a) of the United States Immigration and Nationality Act; and Part I, Article 1, Paragraphs 1 and 3 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

I Liheslaturan Guåhan notes that the 1950 Congress acknowledged its United Nations responsibilities:

In addition to its obligation under the Treaty of Paris, the United States has additional treaty obligations with respect to Guam as a non-self-governing Territory. Under Chapter XI of the Charter of the United Nations, ratified by the Senate June 26, 1945 (59 Stat. at p. 1048), we undertook, with respect to the people of such Territories, to insure political advancement, to develop self-government, and taking due account of the political aspirations of the peoples; to assist them in the progressive development of their free political institutions. Organic Act of Guam, Sen. Rep. 2109, 1950 U.S. Code & Admin. Report p. 2841.

It is the purpose of this legislation to seek the desires to those peoples who were given citizenship in 1950 and to use this knowledge to further petition Congress and other entities to achieve the stated goals.

The intent of this Chapter shall not be construed nor implemented by the government officials effectuating its provisions to be race based, but founded upon the classification of persons as defined by the U.S. Congress in the 1950 Organic Act of Guam.

1.21.35 Registration of Native Inhabitants of Guam.

The steady increase in the number of Native Inhabitants of Guam on the Guam Decolonization Registry after the 2014 elections, as illustrated in Table 1.21.34, can be attributed to an increase in registration forms submitted by Volunteer Voter Registrars and Governor Eddie Calvo's push for Decolonization Registrars in each Government of Guam agency, as mandated in 3 G.C.A. § 21008.1. Native Inhabitants of Guam were also given the opportunity to register at their respective polling sites during the 2012, 2014, and 2016 Primary and General Elections, which resulted in a significant increase in the number of entries in the Decolonization Registry.

In 2011, the 31st Guam Legislature made a special appropriation of $250,000 for Decolonization Registry efforts. The funds expended from this special appropriation were used to pay Decolonization Registrar stipends for the 2012, 2014, and 2016 Primary and General Elections and to procure supplies and materials pertinent to registration efforts. A balance of $9,019.52 remains.

Pursuant to the Decision and Order rendered by District Court of Guam Chief Judge Tydingco-Gatewood on March 8, 2017 in Civil Case No. 11-00035, Arnold Davis vs. Government of Guam, et al., the Guam Election Commission ceased all activities related to the registration of Native Inhabitants of Guam. A memorandum was sent to all Government of Guam agency heads to inform them of the Decision and Order and to request all registration forms and other supplies be submitted to the Guam Election Commission. Efforts have also been made to contact Decolonization Registrars personally to ensure all registration materials are returned. The Guam Election Commission is committed to administer the Election laws as expressed in the Guam Code and interpreted by the Courts and will move administering accordingly.

2.2 VOTER REGISTRATION

Public Law 33-34 was enacted June 2015, facilitating the registration of eligible voters during the acquisition of a motor vehicle driver's license or a Guam identification card. The legislation created a partnership between the Guam Election Commission (GEC) and the Driver's License Examination Branch (DLEB), Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV), Department of Revenue Taxation (DRT). The partnership enables a single process for voter registration and voter information updates. The data presented below highlights the efforts undertaken by the GEC in expanding the voter registry in preparation for the 2024 Primary and General elections.

3.15 ABSENTEE VOTING

During the COVID-19 pandemic, P.L. 35-96 was passed as an effort to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the community by allowing the voters of Guam to cast their votes in the 2020 General Election early by way of in-office absentee voting without excuse. As a result of the early voting participation in the 2020 General Election, 3 G.C.A. § 10107 was amended, permanently allowing early in-office absentee voting—a significant step toward ensuring access and ease of voting for all eligible voters.
